QUESTION:

Will MoDOT add language to the salt contracts to include fuel surcharges?

RESPONSE:

No, but MoDOT will add an escalation clause.

Escalation Clause - In the event the contractor requests a price increase during the contract period due to increased fuel prices, the contractor must provide a written request and documentation justifying the need for a price increase, and the amount of such price increase. This request may not be submitted until December 1, 2008. MoDOT will review the contractor's written request and documentation for a price increase, and decide if a price increase is to be granted at that particular time. If granted, the price increase will be effective on January 1, 2009. The contractor shall understand and agree that MoDOT's decision shall be final and without recourse.
